

"To The Kid on the End of the Bench"

Champions once sat where you're sitting, kid.

The Basketball Hall of Fame (and every other Hall of Fame) is filled with names of people who sat, week after week, without getting a drop of sweat on their well-laundered uniforms.

Generals, senators, surgeons, prize-winning novelists, professors, and business executives started on the end of the bench, too.

Don't sit and study your shoe tops.

Keep your eye on the game.

Watch for defensive lapses.

Look for offensive opportunities.

If you don't think you're in a great spot, wait until you see how many would like to take it away from you at next years tryouts.

What you do from the bench this season could put you on the court next season as a player; OR back in the stands as a spectator.
